

New Frontiers: The social sector through Brexit

Wednesday 11th September, The Mechanics Centre

09.30-10.00 Registration

10.00-10.10 Welcome to the day: Jane Thomas, Sally-Anne Greenfield

New Frontiers: Is the social sector prepared for Brexit?

Chaired by Jane Thomas, Brexit Civil Society Alliance

10.10-10.40 Opening provocations:

Duncan Shrubsole, Lloyds Bank Foundation, England & Wales

Challenges, threats and opportunities for the sector

10.40-12.00 Panel discussion followed by an audience Q&A

Helen Goulden, Young Foundation

Mike Wild, MACC

Lisa Eigbadon, RECLAIM

Immy Kaur, Impact Hub Birmingham (TBC)

12.00-12.15 Break

Sector coming together

12.15-13.15 Breakout sessions on the following topics:

1) Settled status

2) Devolving Brexit

3) Replacement of EU funding: The UK Shared Prosperity Fund

4) A No-deal Brexit

13.15-14.15 Lunch

New Frontiers: How can the social sector help shape a better future for all?

Chaired by Sally-Anne Greenfield, NPC

14.15-14.45 Recap from breakout chairs

14.45-16.00 Panel discussion and an audience Q&A

Alison Page, Salford CVS
Rachel Rank, 360Giving
Caron Bradshaw, Charity Finance Group
A representative from the CO-OP UK

16.00-16.15 Summing up and close

Brexit
Civil Society
Alliance.

